

SYRACUSE, NY - Jennifer Terzini joins PLS as Business Manager. Ms. Terzini most recently worked with a municipal bond marketing firm headquartered in Syracuse which she joined in 1987 and was the Director of Operations/Client Administrator for the last ten years of her career with them. As such, she performed a variety of duties including: account management, marketing, human resources, corporate function planning and strategic planning. Jennifer left the firm in 2003 to be a full-time stay at home mom to her 3 children, ages 13, 11 and 6.

As PLS has continued to grow exponentially over the last few years, the owner team recognized the need to centralize operations to enhance the experience for our clients, contractors and associates. The experience she brings with her makes her an integral part of the PLS team. Key responsibilities include: coordinating our coaching/training engagements, working with the Director of Business Development to obtain new business and streamline relationships with current clients, marketing and public relations and general operational issues.
